

Walk in His Steps

Luke 9:57-62 (Matthew 8:18-22)

To walk in His steps we have some critical issues to overcome

Issue #1 Impulsiveness

He saw - Miracle worker, Messiah Mission
He didn't know where Jesus is going.

So: Have a personal and deliberate commitment to Jesus

Issue # Insincerity

He was called, His daddy wasn't dead.

So: Focus on the issues of the heart

Issue # Indecision

You can't move forward by looking back.

Following Jesus does not allow for divided loyalty

Following Jesus does require a singular focus

So: Eliminate all rivals to Jesus

Discussion Questions

1. Where do you see impulsiveness in your own walk with Christ, and how can you move toward a more deliberate commitment?
2. Are there areas in your life where you've been saying "not yet" to God? What is really behind that hesitation?
3. What are some "rivals" in your life that compete with your devotion to Jesus? How can you begin eliminating them?
4. What would it practically look like for you to follow Jesus with a singular focus this week?
